

NEWS OF THE CITY

For Sale.

Fine business location, living rooms attached. L. A. NEMECK.

James Kelley arrived Tuesday evening from Nacozari and left Wednesday morning for San Diego, Cal.

Johnny Toomey and Mr. McCormick left on Friday morning for Tombstone to visit with friends for a few days.

Mrs. Scott Turner arrived from Nacozari Tuesday evening on a visit to her mother.

The cemetery ball given by the committee at the opera house on Friday evening was well attended and all present report a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. Louise W. Howe left Monday for Johnsville, Plumas county, California, on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Perkins, who resides there.

S. C. Perrene has sold all his property in Bisbee, Henry Mans and Chas. Holtz being the purchasers.

T. F. Darnall received a hurried summons to Benson today and will leave on Sunday morning's train for that place.

Tom Whitehead this week sent out a lot of cast iron well casing to his cattle ranch. Mr. Whitehead will bore a deep well, so that he will always have an abundance of water, rain or no rain.

The improvements on Main street have left quite a hiatus between the sidewalk, and the surface of the street and several business houses are building bridges.

Regular shipments of ore are made from the Toughnut mines to the El Paso smelter. Judging from the shipments made the Tombstone chlorides are doing well while the company also reap a good royalty from the returns.—Prospector.

Mr. Gustave Hempel, who has been with the railroad surveying party for some time, returned to Bisbee this week. Mr. Hempel reports that a preliminary line has been run to El Paso, and that the party is working back on another line.

George Dunn returned from Arispe on Thursday after a visit of six days in the Mexican county seat. George says everything looks very quiet in that vicinity and volunteered the information that the rivers are so lazy in that section of the country that they sink to avoid the extra exertion of running.

St. John's church (Episcopal) Feb. 24th, first Sunday in Lent, services in Library hall 11 a. m. Holy communion and sermon 7:45 p. m. Evening prayer and address in memoriam Queen Victoria. All welcome.

S. F. McGuire of the International Land and Improvement company has arranged to be at the Angus house on Monday of each week, where intending purchasers or those interested in the new town of Douglass can get all desired information.

Whitehead & Marshall have disposed of all their interests in the New England Kitchen to Al Brown. The change in proprietorship will take place on the first of March. Mr. Brown, the purchaser, has had experience in the restaurant business, and under his management there will not be any let down in the excellence of this popular house.

Supt. G. L. Clark of the Copper Bullion company, was a Tombstone visitor today. Mr. Clark reports that extensive work is contemplated by the company on their Iragoon Mountain property and expect to crowd development work with vigor. A large number of Los Angeles stockholders are interested in the Copper Bullion and they propose to develop the merits of their property and place it upon the dividend paying list.—Prospector.

P. J. McAndrews, who has been a soldier in the Philippines, and C. R. Hamrick, a sporting gentleman, got a little mixed up about some unimportant trifle Tuesday night and were gathered in by Officer Johnson. Mr. McAndrews, on account of his experience in the Philippines, where the idea was drilled into him by the unreasonable behavior of the Filipinos, seems to have an idea that he must fight all the time.

James Baker and wife returned Tuesday evening from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where Mrs. Baker went to obtain some relief from rheumatism. Mrs. Baker has been at the springs since November 1, but seems to have obtained very little relief. On the homeward journey it was necessary to carry her from one train to another. Their many friends in Bisbee regret to learn of the slow recovery of Mrs. Baker. Mr. Baker resumed his position as engineer on the South Western Thursday morning.

There will arrive in Bisbee next Tuesday Mrs. I. D. Lopez, who has been teaching music in St. Joseph's Academy in Tucson for the last two years, but who of late has had to sever her connection with the institution owing to her husband's business, which demands taking up her residence in Bisbee. She comes highly recommended as a music teacher and lady. Of late she has been visiting her parents in Mexico before coming here. The madame teaches vocal culture, harmony, theory, sight reading, violin, mandolin, guitar, piano and all orchestral instruments. Orders for lessons can be left at this office until further notice of the location of studio.

An experienced lady clerk wants a position in store. Enquire at REVIEW office.

A. W. Hoey, collector of customs for this district, was in Bisbee this week and visited Douglas, where he selected a site for the American custom house.

Dr. F. A. Sweet is back from Phoenix where he went to interview the ear specialist. We are pleased to state that the doctor's hearing is much improved.

John Hoops, Jr., and Sam Price were visitors from the Gila Valley this week. They visited Naco and returned to their homes on Wednesday.

Pete Johnson returned on Tuesday from Los Angeles, where he had been on business connected with the South Bisbee company.

Two Chinamen were ordered deported by Court Commissioner Williams on Friday. They were captured by Line Riders Murphy and Hitchcock at Heynes' ranch near Naco.

Architect Perkins, J. H. Jacks, the lumber man, and John McGuire, manager of the International Townsite company, were passengers for Douglas Thursday morning.

Embroidery Lessons.—I am introducing Beldon Bros. wash silks and linens, and am prepared to give a course of 12 lessons for $2; silks and linens at cost to those taking lessons. Private lessons 35 cents each. Address Mrs. C. D. Webb, or call at Mr. Ingle's house, Knob hill.

A laborer named Medigovich was seriously injured in the converter pit on Tuesday night. He was helping to loosen the lining of one of the converters when a bar of iron struck him in the face, knocking out some teeth and cutting his face.

The dedication of the capitol at Phoenix will occur on Monday February 25th. This event promises to be the social event of the season. Two thousand dollars has been raised to defray the expenses of decorations, illuminations and grand ball.

L. C. Shattuck returned Thursday evening from Placeritas and was present at the bed side of Jack Keating during his last hours. Mr. Shattuck and Keating were interested in some silver mines near Placeritas, where Mr. Keating was at work when he was stricken down. During his illness Mr. Keating received the best of medical attention.

Rev. S. A. Thompson, superintendent of Arizona missions, visited the Methodist society on the 21st of Feb. and held quarterly conference at the church. He will spend Sunday at Benson and preach morning and evening in the Methodist church. Dr. Thompson was not enjoying his usual health.

A telephone message received at the office of S. K. Williams last night from Douglass announced the shooting of a man named Bergreen by A. L. Crow at Camp No. 3 on the Southwestern railroad, located at Silver Creek. Al Strickland, deputy sheriff, left Bisbee this morning for the scene of the difficulty.

Walter Fife, county assessor, was again in Bisbee on Wednesday, returning from the grading camps of Robinson & Toohy in the San Simon valley. Mr. Fife left a sufficient amount of poll tax receipts with B. Jones, manager for Robinson & Toohy, who, under the law, is required to collect the poll tax from his employees and turn it into the county treasurer. Mr. Fife left on Thursday for Naco on official business.

Captain J. B. Benton, formerly chief of scouts at San Carlos, is in Bisbee this week for a short stay. Mr. Benton has been in Mexico for the past two months on a mining deal. Previous to that time he had charge of some mining property in the Aravaipa mining district in Graham county for Captain J. L. Bullis. Captain Benton is an old timer in Arizona and knows every trail and by-path from San Carlos to Mexico.

A coroner's jury empaneled to inquire into the death of Jerry Hazelwood, whose body was found one mile from Bisbee, brought in the following verdict: "We the jury, find that Jerry Hazelwood's death was caused from the effects of wounds received by falling from his wagon and being run over by the same about one mile from Bisbee on February 16th, and that his death was accidental."

The traveling public and the citizens of Bisbee have for many months been engaged in a struggle, the public wanting rooms and the citizens making efforts to supply the demand. Notwithstanding the several lodging houses and residences lately erected, the cry is still for more rooms. Justice S. K. Williams has now entered the fray and will do his part toward filling Bisbee's pressing want. He is now having built on what is known as the old Craig property, on the east side of Brewery gulch, a lodging house that will have sixteen rooms. The size is 90x28 feet, and the building will be equipped with all modern conveniences.

Baron G. Fontenillat, Professor G. G. Lion, of Paris, France, and E. H. Wakeman, of San Francisco arrived on Tuesday's stage from Nacozari, where they had been to examine some copper properties located near Placeritas. It is given out on good authority that their company will take hold of the property they examined, and also a very promising copper property located about six miles from Bisbee along the line of the South Western railroad. During their stay in Bisbee the gentlemen were shown the many interesting parts of the town by C. F. Nichols. These gentlemen expect to return to Bisbee and Nacozari in about sixty days to make preparations to begin developing their properties.

The Andrews Opera Company.

The management of the Bisbee opera house have opened negotiations with the Andrews Opera company for a season of standard opera in English.

The Andrews Opera company is today the leading traveling operatic organization in America. They have a double cast of principals and a well-trained chorus and carry their own operatic orchestra. Among the operas in their repertoire are Carmen, Martha, Trovatore, Fra Diavolo, Faust, Erminie, Mikado and the Bohemian Girl. The principal stars are Florence Clayton, mezzo soprano; Catherine Lee, lyric soprano; Nellie Andrews, dramatic soprano; Frank Walters, the great dramatic tenor; Jay C. Taylor, lyric tenor; George Andrews, baritone; Jas. Stevens, dramatic baritone; Ed. Andrews, the favorite comedian; Chad Parker, a clever comedian; and Chas. D. Hazelrigg, one of the best known musical directors in this country.

The Andrews company has been the best equipped organization in America for fifteen years, and the company this year is superior to any previous one under this management. At the Bisbee opera house on or about March 2nd, further notice of which will be given as to prices of admission and definite date of opening.

Cutting Scrape at Douglass.

On Thursday the following telegram was received at the office of S. K. Williams:

"Douglas, Feb. 21, 1901.
"Man badly cut here last night—man who did cutting still here. No doctor.
"Signed Robinson & Toohy."

Upon receipt of telegram Justice Williams dispatched an officer to the scene of the difficulty who was accompanied by Dr. Caven. Upon their arrival they found two men had been cut. One was seriously injured—his entrails lying on the ground. Dr. Caven attended the wounded man and he was brought to Bisbee on the evening train from Douglass. All of the participants in the affray are Mexicans and the assailant made his escape into Mexico. The injured man will be taken to Tombstone and placed in the hospital.

Death of an Old-Timer.

Word was received in Bisbee Tuesday evening of the death of John Keating, who passed away a few days ago at his mining camp, which is situated between San Miguelito and Nacozari. Mr. Keating has been a resident of Cochise county for over 20 years, and made a large circle of friends, who regret his death. At one time he was in the cattle business, his range being in the Chiricahua mountains. L. C. Shattuck was interested with him in his mines, and is now at the camp, having gone there on the receipt of the news of Mr. Keating's illness. Some days ago, Mr. Keating was obliged to get a divorce from his wife, he being awarded the custody of the children by the court. By his death three little children are left fatherless.

Pythian Anniversary.

On the evening of February 19th in Library hall, Rathbone Lodge No. 10, of Bisbee, celebrated the anniversary of the organization of the order of Knights of Pythias in the United States. The order has been in existence for thirty-seven years and is conceded to be one of the strongest secret organizations in existence. No member can be a good Knight and not represent all that is good and noble. The exercises were very appropriate, consisting of music, vocal and instrumental, recitations, etc. Captain Jack Crawford was present and added materially to the pleasure of the evening. Rathbone Lodge is about seventy-five strong in Bisbee and is fast forging to the front.

Death of J. N. Armstrong.

On Saturday night at midnight, J. N. Armstrong, formerly of Safford, Arizona, died in the company hospital, where has been confined for the past six weeks with a severe case of pneumonia. Mr. Armstrong was a carpenter and had only been at work in Bisbee a short time. The funeral services were held in Library hall and conducted by T. C. Moffett. During his illness he received every attention possible.

It will awaken considerable interest among our theater-goers to know that the Andrews opera company are willing to give us a season of opera. The company is large, and expensive and every assurance is given that they will eclipse all previous efforts. The cherished opportunity has now arrived and there will no doubt be a large sale of seats. Arrangements are about complete to have this company at Bisbee on or about March 2nd.

Miss Violet Hoscoll and Miss Della Hoscoll, with Mr. Von Kanel, were interested spectators of the ball game on Friday.

R. C. Brown, that old veteran newspaper man, who knows every trail and by-path in Arizona, was in Bisbee this week in the interest of the Tucson Citizen. R. C. is one of the old pioneer newspaper men of the territory, and a good one.

FOR SALE.—One 4-room house with furniture in Brewery avenue, opposite lumber yard. Apply, Thomas Ham.

Base ball enthusiasts will take the train leaving Bisbee at 9 a. m. for Don Luis, where a general practice game will be played.

Jim Riley, an old-time prospector, came up from Douglass on Friday and will remain in Bisbee for a short visit.

THE COPPER QUEEN STORE

New China Ware

It's getting to be almost an old story this telling of new things in the Crockery Department, or the China store, if you please.

But never before has it made such a strong appeal to your love for the beautiful as now. The Department is growing and already is beyond the stage where it can supply only the necessary things in crockery. Dinner sets and such pieces are apt to interest you only when you've need for same.

Now the Department makes a bid for your interest with a splendid showing of dainty bits of china ware. Not absolutely essential things—no, not at all, unless you're entirely lacking in sentiment. But what woman can resist after dinner coffee cups, quaint little tea pots with sugars and creamers to match, and such things. And its just such things as we've unpacked this past week and now have ready for you.

Decorated Tea Sets, consisting of tea pot, sugar and creamer.....$3. to 6.
Sugar and creamers.....$2 and $3

Odd single cups and saucers:
After dinner coffees, tea cups, moustache cups.

Cake plates, handsomely decorated, $1 to $2

—Fancy pin trays
—Fancy pin trays
—Jewelry and match boxes
—Candlesticks
—Chocolate sets
—Bureau sets
—Ash trays
—Small decorated mugs, 10c to 35c
—Shaving mugs for the men 35c to $1

Folding Beds, Bed Lounges and Cots

Are you one of the many inquiring customers for these very goods. If you are then you should lose no time in getting here, for this new lot will not last long. We've had many more inquiries than we've goods for and someone will be disappointed. If you delay too long, perhaps you'll be one of the disappointed ones.

While you are at the Furniture Store, take a look around. No doubt but that you'll find many an attractive piece of furniture that you've been wanting. It will probably cost you less than you expected to pay.

Lenten Food

We list below a great long array of just such things in the eatable line as you'll be wanting with the advent of the Lenten Season.

If variety is the spice of life—and of appetite, then there'll be no palled digestion due to monotony of diet.

Were you aware that so many kind of fish food could be had—all put up in cleanly, appetizing shape?

Mackerel	Salmon Bellies	Salt Salmon
Halibut	Russian Sardines	Codfish
Pilchard in oil	Swedish Herring	Sardines
Smoked Herring	Smoked Bloaters	Cavaire
Smoked Eels	Holland Herring	White Fish
C & B Bloaters	Kipperd Herring	Anchovies
Skinned Herring	Spiced Herring
Oysters, fresh and canned.		